Under Appellate Rule 209, you must pay part of the cost of your court-appointed attorney unless your conviction is reversed on appeal. The court or clerk usually will decide the amount you must pay by use of the schedule below. But, in unusual circumstances, you may be required to pay more or less than the scheduled amount. After the court or clerk has entered judgment, you may ask for the amount to be reduced if payment would cause manifest hardship to you or your family.
